C&G Rothbury Insurance Brokers Recognised as Award Calibre Broker

C&G Rothbury has received a Merit Award at the Australia and New Zealand Insurance Industry Awards on 24th July, 2006.

Nominated as Insurance Broker of the Year, C&G Rothbury's submission detailed their responsiveness to clients, a focus on technology and their commitment to professional standards.

Joan Fitzpatrick CEO of ANZIIF and Presiding Judge of the Awards stated, "The panel felt that one submission outside of the overall category winners was of a very high calibre and that it ought to be recognised in some way. I am delighted to present a Merit Award to C&G Rothbury, recognising the quality of their application and the commitment to professionalism that is so very obviously an integral part of their business".

With a three year history, the Australia and New Zealand Insurance Industry Awards celebrate the region's commitment and dedication to best practice and high achievement.

Roger Abel, Managing Directory of C&G Rothbury says, "We have achieved a great deal in the last year and this is just the beginning of an exciting future for all of our stakeholders - team members, partners and clients alike."

"To receive this recognition among our industry peers reaffirms the value we are bringing to the market and supports our commitment to making a positive impact in our industry."
