

New President and Board for IBANZ

Tony Butson has been elected IBANZ President at yesterday's board meeting held in Auckland. Tony has been in the insurance industry since 1973 and is currently the Chairman of the Rothbury Group, New Zealand's largest privately owned insurance broking company. He has served as a director of several companies , both private and public and lives in Queenstown.

The board also elected David Crawford and Nick Cressey as Vice Presidents.

David Crawford has an extensive experience in insurance, including working in the Middle East and London markets. David is the Managing Director of Advisernet , a network of independent insurance brokers based throughout New Zealand. David also serves on the Education Committee of IBANZ . He interests include tennis, golf, fishing, rugby and in his spare time enjoys activities with his wife and three children.

Nick Cressey has been in the insurance industry for 34 years covering underwriting, claims and broking. Nick is a Director of Insurance Brokers International based in Albany, Auckland. Nicks interests include yachting, rugby, fishing, motor racing and classic cars and is married with two adult daughters and three grandsons.

The IBANZ Board

	Alan Daly	Jason Smith	David Crawford	Graham Henry	Richard Russell
Duane Dugan	Nick Cressey	Ruth Steele	Tony Butson		Bill Donovan

Absent: Tony Rowe