What sort of adviser am I?

I am a registered, but not authorised, financial adviser.

I can give you advice about a wide range of Insurance products, other than investment linked insurance contracts as defined in the Financial Advisers Act 2008.

If you require advice on other areas of insurance, such as risk management, I can refer you to an adviser who specialises and has the required competence and skills in that area.

If we cannot agree on how to resolve the issue to your satisfaction, you may contact my employer Rothbury Group Ltd on (09)580 8455 and ask for the matter to be referred to the Complaints Officer. Your complaint will be acknowledged in writing and we will endeavour to resolve the issue within 20 working days. A copy of our complaint guide, "Understanding you better", is available from our website.

If we still cannot agree on how to fix the issue, or if you decide not to use the internal complaints service, you can contact Financial Services Complaints Ltd (FSCL). This service will cost you nothing, and will help us resolve any disagreements.

How am I regulated by the Government?

The Financial Markets Authority regulates financial advisers. Contact the Financial Markets Authority for more information, including financial tips and warnings.

You can report information or complain about my conduct to the Financial Markets Authority, but in the event of a disagreement, you may choose to first use the dispute resolution procedures described above (under What should you do if something goes wrong?).
