What sort of adviser am I?

I am a registered, but not authorized, financial adviser.

I can provide advice for;

- the placement and cover of motor vehicle insurance specifically designed for and arranged via third party providers ie Finance Houses and or motor vehicle dealers.
- I can advise you regarding your contractual obligations to these third party providers.
- Providing Premium Funding options in which our clients can spread the payment of their annual insurance for an additional charge.

If you require advice on the placing of insurance products, such as commercial or domestic, I can refer you to an adviser who specialises and has the required competence and skills in that area.

What should you do if something goes wrong?
